Mountaintops are sacred places.

Man sees them as symbols of what is best and noblest in his aspiring.

Our Mount is not so great as those high peaks
which history names,

Yet it rises to point the way - from Sinai, from Parnassus - to Tabor.

To Mother Rosemary and her faculty, we,
the class of 1958, dedicate this book.

President's Message

Dear Graduates,

In France over 300 years ago when our founder gave the crucifix, the badge of our profession, to our very first Sisters when they pronounced their vows, he said,

"Wear it openly, bear it bravely, just as Christ did—; bear it to far-off lands. Be it your oriflamme to victory. When in death you resign it, let other hands and hearts like to yours in consecration take up the burden preserving it ever in their and your Society's keeping during the onrolling centuries."

Through the successors of those Sisters, Catholic Education has been brought to you here at the Mount. We hope the spirit of the Mount, that intangible badge of belonging, and that education which would develop you into "The Woman of the Mount" the woman always giving of herself, so aptly portrayed on our recent T-V program, has been acquired by each one of you.

May we hope that you, like the Sisters of St. Joseph who have borne that cross to so many, will bear that education, that spirit throughout your lives. Make all those you contact better intellectually and spiritually for having known you. Then, and only then, will the Mount have fulfilled its purpose.

Be loyal to your God, to your family, and to the Mount.

God love and bless you. May Our Lady and St. Joseph go with you.

Sincerely,

Sister Rosemary

MOUNT GUILD

You gave your time, energy, and interest to the Mount. Through your unselfish work we have benefited in every way.

Guild members discuss plans at their April monthly meeting for their annual Spring Scholarship Luncheon.

As part of the student health services introduced on campus this year, Dr. Britt Dalby weighs Jean Robbie during physical examination.

HEALTH OFFICE

Assisted by Sister Genevieve Marie, Dr. Dalby checks Nancy Bergin's blood pressure.

You received the benefits of medical services from doctors and nurses here on campus.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Senior Audrey Berks was chosen as a cheerleader at Loyola University this year. Audrey's Mount spirit highlighted the Lion basketball games.

The Mount received the distinction of having Freshman Linda Hope reign as one of the princesses in the Loyola Homecoming festivities.

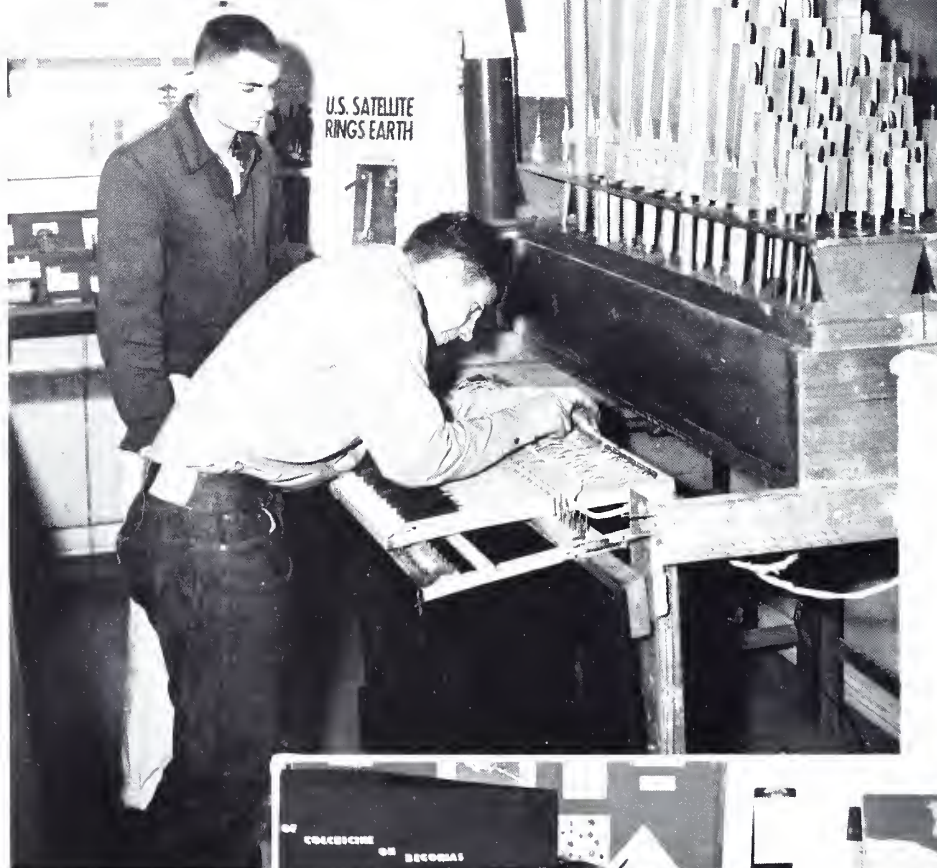

Sophomores Marguerite Roth and Theresa Griffin admire one of the entries among the exhibits in the Physical Sciences.

SCIENCE FAIR

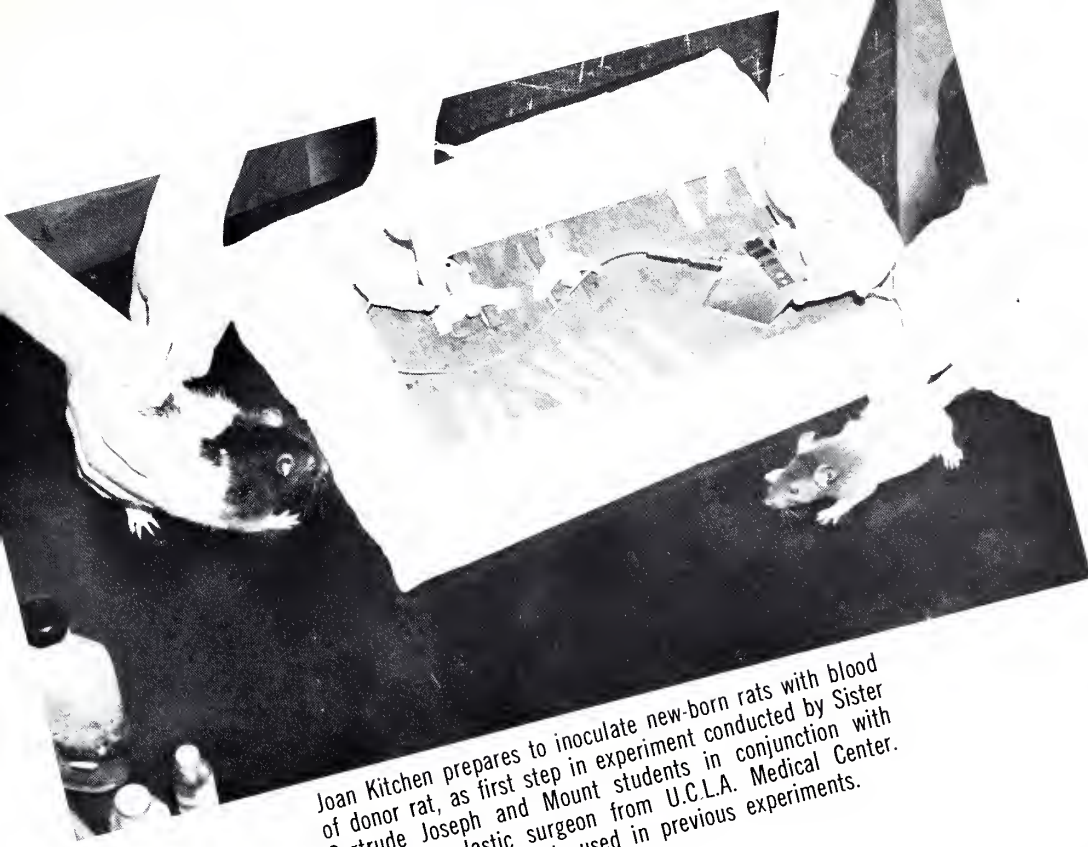

Future scientists from local high schools compete for honors in annual Science Fair, held on campus in March.

Mike Cahill, Senior from Mission High School, looks on as classmate Ronny Sanchez, who built pipe organ, gives it finishing touches.

Biological Sciences are also featured. Shown is Junior Mary Anne Wormsted examining details of exhibits.

Joan Kitchen prepares to inoculate new-born rats with blood of donor rat, as first step in experiment conducted by Sister Gertrude Joseph and Mount students in conjunction with Dr. Ashley, plastic surgeon from U.C.L.A. Medical Center. Shown also are animals used in previous experiments.

As students with more than the ordinary interest in science, you worked here at the Mount doing research in homographing.

SPECIAL RESEARCH

Left to Right: Joann Barone, Sharon Mooney, Joan Kitchen and Sister Gertrude Joseph demonstrate steps used in homographing experimentation.

Dr. Thomas R. Dooley, Left, lectured to the student body this Spring about his work as a medical doctor in Asia. The doctor has dedicated his life to giving medical help to poverty stricken Asians. After a lecture tour of the United States, Dr. Dooley will return to Asia to establish another hospital.

SPECIAL EVENTS

In the Fall, Sister Rosemary dedicated a new statue of Christ the King (Left), located at the triangle—entrance to the campus. Imported from Italy, the statue was a gift to the school.

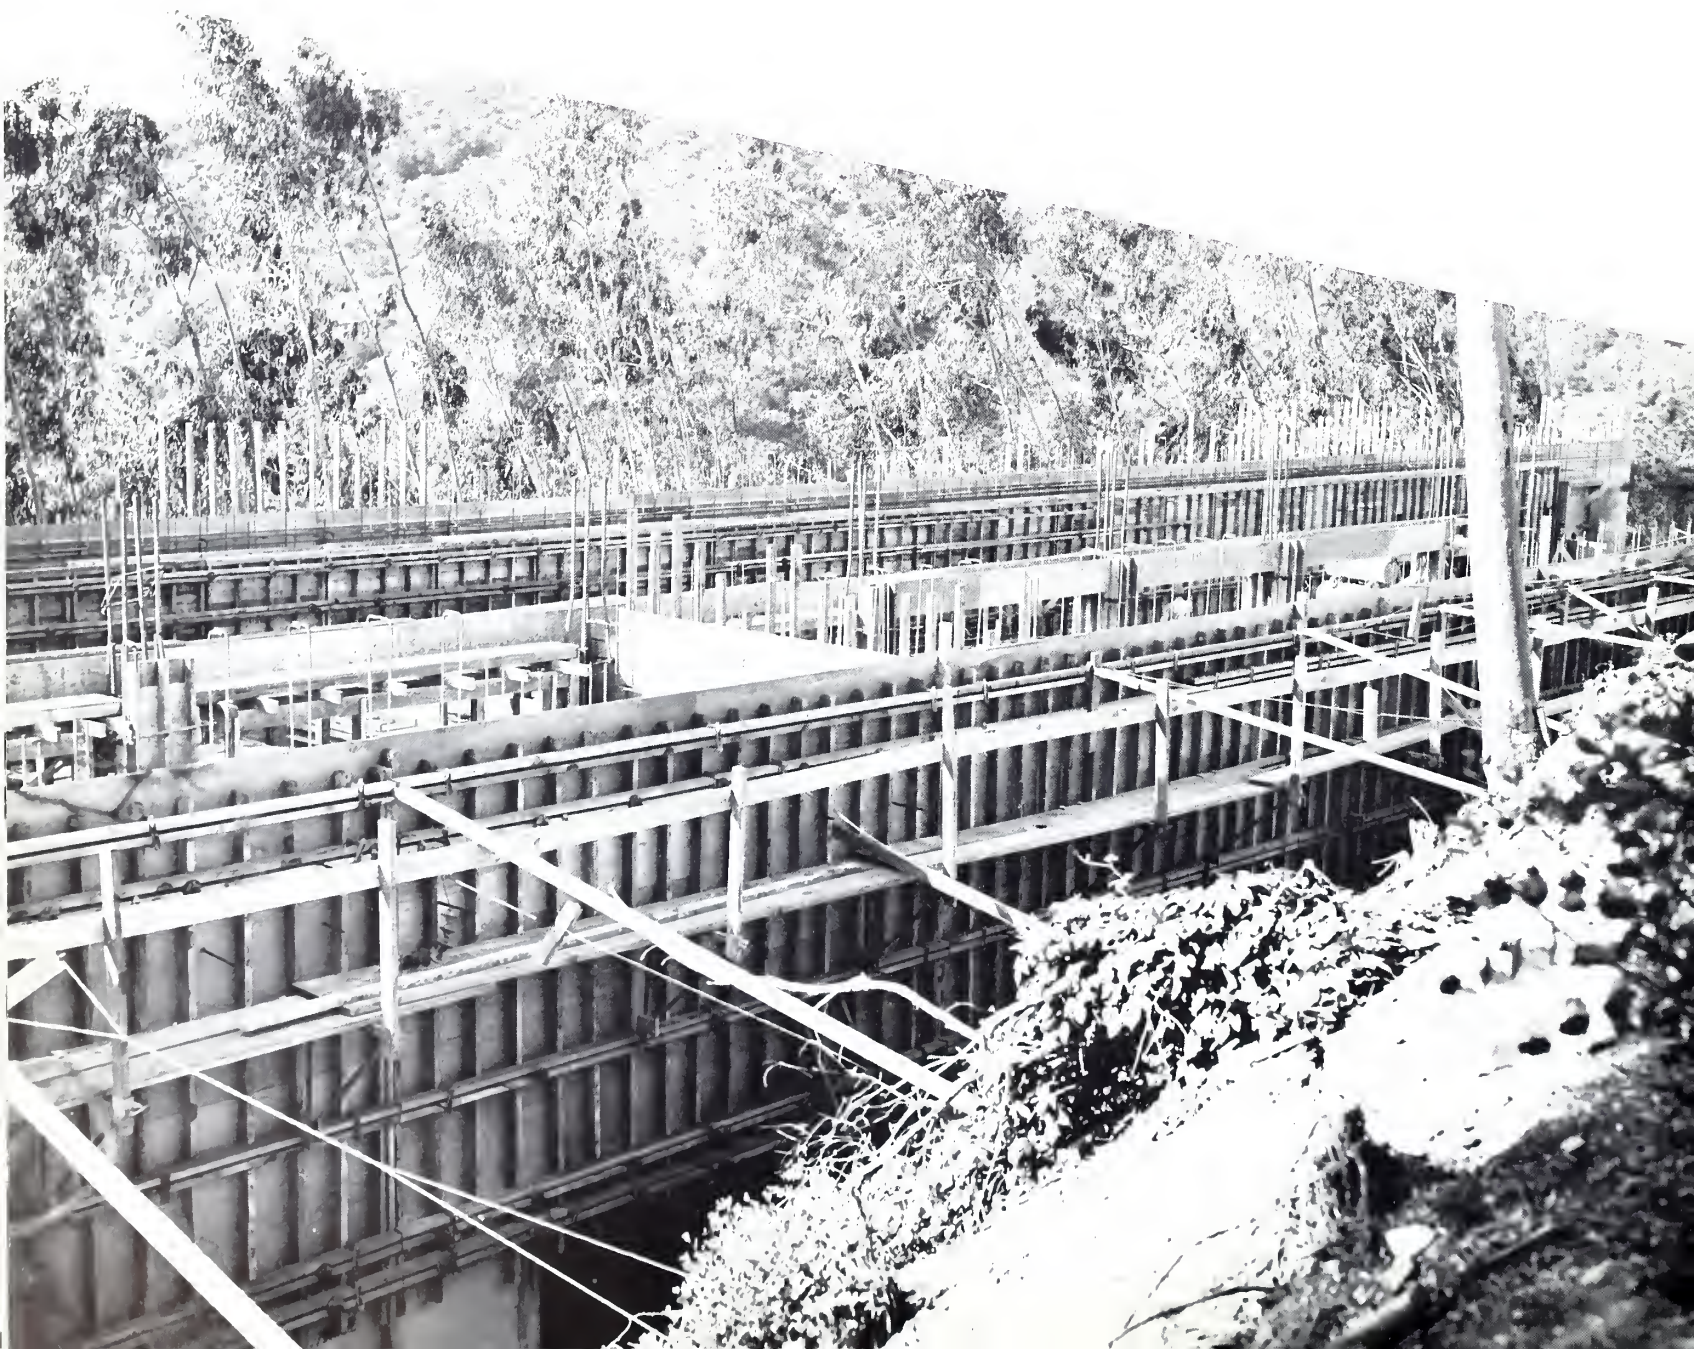

Photographed by Victor Barnaba, this view of Mary Chapel won first prize for Architectural Photography at the State Convention of the Professional Photographers' Association of California.
